ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

Volume 3, Issue 2

June 1, 1995

Summer is upon us and with the sunshine comes the start of training camp, preseason and of course -- the Seahawks Alumni Weekend.

ALUMNI WEEKEND

The Seahawks Alumni Weekend, August 11-13, will celebrate the organization's proud history with all of you. Along with the golf tournament and barbeque, this year the team will honor its first Hall of Fame inductee Steve Largent before a Kingdome crowd.

On Friday, August 11, Sam Adkins will direct the 9th annual golf tournament at Bear Creek County Club in Woodinville.

On Saturday, August 12, you and your family are encouraged to attend the barbeque at the Seahawks facility. Following lunch, transportation will be provided to the Kingdome when the Seahawks take on the Indianapolis Colts in a preseason game.

Included in the halftime ceremonies will be an introduction of every former player in attendance and a Hall of Fame presentation by HOF Executive Director Pete Elliott.

Please contact Sandy Gregory if you would like to attend the game (206) 827-9777.

SEAHAWKS: THE NEXT GENERATION

No, we don't have any legacies on the Seahawks roster yet, but plenty of your children are making their respective marks.

Congratulations to Tina Tuiasosopo who earned a volleyball scholarship to the University of Washington. She begins classes this fall.

Congratulations also go out to Joy and Jim Zorn, who welcomed their first son Isaac James to their family on March 4. Isaac joins three sisters in the family, Rachael, Sarah, and Dani.

COACH OR BE COACHED

In addition to the number of Seahawks alumnus now in the coaching ranks that we reported in February's edition is John Kaiser (1984-86) who has returned to his alma mater Arizona as a graduate assistant, Art Kuehn (1976-82) who is the head coach at Cedarcrest High School (formerly Tolt) in nearby Duval, and Will Lewis (1980-81) who has joined the defensive staff with the Atlanta Falcons.

According to our records, we boast eight alumni who have entered the coaching profession.

BULLARD HONOR

Louis Bullard (1978-80) was inducted into the Jackson State University Athletic Hall of Fame last November. He has worked his way into senior level management with Miller Brewing Company in Memphis, Tennessee.
